The End Time Dimensions of the Parables

'Saying and Doing'

Recommended Reading: Recommended Reading: COL, pp. 272-283; Matthew 21:23-32; Matthew 23:1-4; Matthew 23:23-28

In our lesson today we will study about the two sons who promised to go and work in their father's vineyard. One of them said he would go and didn't. The other said he wouldn't go and did. Though we will focus our attention on the parable itself (Matthew 21:28-32), it is highly recommended that you study the immediately preceding verses (verses 1-27) in order to comprehend the events which led up to the parable. The parable reads: "But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard. He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." (Matthew 21:28-32)

John 3:16,17

¹⁶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

¹⁷ For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
