The End Time Dimension of the Parables

Healing the Paralytic at Capernaum

Recommended Reading: DA, pp. 201-213; 267-271; Matthew 9:1-8; Mark 2:3-12; Luke 5:18-26; John 5:1-47

In His public ministry Jesus healed many paralytics. In the next two lessons we will focus on the two most notorious: The healing of the paralytic in Capernaum and the restoration of the paralytic by the Pool of Bethesda. We will find in our study that these two episodes do not simply describe Christ's power to heal those who are physically maimed. They actually seek to teach that Jesus is able to heal those who are spiritually paralyzed by sin. Let's begin our study with the event in Capernaum.

Hebrews 11:24-27

<sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; <sup>25</sup> Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; <sup>26</sup> Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. <sup>27</sup> By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

Romans 2:13

<sup>13</sup> (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

PERSONAL PRAYER POINTS

- Help us to bear the gentle and small trials, and grow through their learning to strengthen our experiences, that,
- When tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the Word, we are not offended.
- Help us to be careful and not receive the Gospel to escape from suffering.
- Help us to constantly remember and understand that the Gospel is deliverance from sin.
- Help us to be careful that we do not rejoice for a season, thinking that religion will free us from difficulty and trial.
