The End Time Dimension of the Parables

'Gaining to Lose'

Recommended Reading: COL, pp. 252-259; Luke 12:13-30; 1 Timothy 6:9-10; 1 Timothy 6:17-19; James 5:1-3

In our lesson today we will study the parable of the rich fool. Though the parable itself is found in Luke 12:15-21, the immediately preceding and succeeding contexts must also be taken into account. Immediately before Jesus told the parable, an event transpired that provided Him with the opportunity to tell the parable (Luke 12:13-14). Then, after telling the parable, Jesus further amplified its lessons (Luke 12:22-30) Let's begin by taking a look at how Jesus handled a case of sibling rivalry.

PERSONAL PRAYER POINTS

- Help us not to look at the present inconvenience and trial, and forget the Eternal realities.
- Let us not be like the disciples who left Jesus, and are ready to say, “This is a hard saying; who can hear it?”
- Let us not be in the number of people who claim to serve God, and not have the experimental knowledge of Him within us.
- Let our desire to do God’s will be not just based upon our own inclination, but upon the deep conviction of the Holy Spirit.
- May our conduct be brought into harmony with the Law of God.
